INTERIOR DESIGNERS presents

August 1, 2008

Thank you for partnering with us to achieve our mission in the Santa Fe community.

santa fe INTERIOR DESIGNERS presents... is a trade association composed of New Mexico licensed interior designers, interior designers, students and associated trades professionals, in conjunction with the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID), that makes charitable contributions to a chosen non-profit group each year.

santa fe INTERIOR DESIGNERS presents... organizes and facilitates an annual forum where interior designers, design students, trade professionals and the public gather to dialogue and exchange ideas embracing both the traditional Santa Fe design and current global design innovations;

...attend presentations by national and internationally recognized interior design industry professionals;

...and tour homes and facilities designed by local interior design professionals.

The event is designed to educate, stimulate and further enhance the lives of all who enjoy the built environment.

Profits from the annual event are contributed to a relevant local community project. This year we have selected Youth Shelters and Family Services to receive our monetary contribution. In addition, our group has pledged to assist Youth Shelters and Family Services in the design of the new Youth Shelters Transitional Living Facility.

Design Weekend begins on Thursday, September 18th with the Jeff Harnar Award for Contemporary Architecture at William Siegal Gallery. Our program moves to CCA on Friday, September 19th for the Panel Discussion, "The Feel of It: Handcrafted Design in the 21st Century", moderated by David Sutherland, featuring Erin Adams, NOMI and Joan Weissman with a Luncheon to follow. The Home Tour presents eight homes designed by interior designers from our group, showcasing a wide range of design aesthetics. Homes will be open on Friday and Saturday. We have two Industry Sponsor events: Friday night at G. Coles-Christensen Rug Merchants for "Wine and Design" and Saturday night at MOSS Outdoor, with a "Designer Meet-and-Greet" for contemporary quilt artist Denyse Schmidt. The Closing Party at CCA includes a Network Gathering, "Experience Design" Fashion Show and Sean Healan Band.

We hope that participating with us will further your goals in both the Santa Fe design community and for the betterment of the community as a whole.

Kind Regards,

Kim White & Kris Lajeskie
